Vol. III. No. 3 Baton Rouge, La June, 1956

The Louisiana Genealogical & Historical Society lost one of its most enthusiastic supporters this month, with the death of Mrs. Howard S. Giere of Hammond. Mrs. Giere died June 15 at Touro Infirmary in New Orleans, following an illness of several weeks.

She was a charter member of the Society -- and, indeed was the person primarily responsible for the fact that the Society is chartered. As curator, a post which she held for two years, she worked tirelessly to systematize our collection of manuscripts, papers and source materials. Outside the framework of the Society, she worked equally as hard.

To fill Mrs. Giere's unexpired term as curator, the president has appointed Mrs. Amos E. Neff of Covington. Mrs. Neff was already serving on the board of trustees and heads the committee named to work for passage of an archives bill.

STATE ACTIVITY

Monroe has moved into second place in number of Society memberships, forging ahead with 14 additions on the current list. A local chapter was organized there recently, and the reports we get are encouraging.

Baton Rouge still leads the state in memberships. Shreveport and New Orleans were tied for third place, but New Orleans has now broken the tie. There is considerable activity in the Alexandria area, and in the Florida parishes.

You might be interested in other facts concerning the Society membership. Most of our members, of course, are Louisianians, but we have a sizeable number of others on our rolls. Texas leads the out-of-state list, with Mississippi close behind. We have one Canadian membership.

We are being recognized by more and more libraries. Several of the parish libraries have taken memberships, and the Register circulates afar to such institutions as the Detroit Public Library, the Denver Public Library and the Tennessee State Library & Archives.

Through these libraries we reach a larger number of readers and are able, we hope, to do more good. If you have friends who are interested in genealogy or local history, urge them to join us.

BIBLE RECORDS

The records below were copied from a Bible now owned by Miss Katherine Chinn Colbert and her mother, Mrs. Canfield Colbert, of Minden, La. The Bible originally belonged to Mrs. Martha Drake, of Edgefield District, S. C. It was published at Boston by C. Ewer, T. Bedlington and J. H. A. Frost, in 1828. "I have included some records found on loose sheets," Miss Colbert explains. "There is some repetition in them, perhaps some discrepancies in dates, but they are very old, on paper which is brittle and broken in many places. I know that some of these loose records were made more than 83 years ago, because I find notations on them in my grandmother's handwriting, and she died Aug. 30, 1872."

FORM FOR QUERYING

For several issues now we have been wanting to bring to the attention of our readers the proper form for querying. We are pleased to receive queries, from members and non-members alike, and we publish them without charge, but more of our time is being spent in retyping and rephrasing than is practical. To help us with our editorial job, we ask you to follow these suggestions:

(1) We would prefer that queries be typewritten, and double-spaced, but we will accept any queries that we can read. Be particularly careful when writing names in longhand.

(2) Send queries on a sheet or sheets separate from the covering letter, or from other material you may send.

(3) Begin the query by listing all surnames which will appear, in the order that they appear. Use our printed queries as a guide.

(4) Write in complete sentences. It is difficult for us to organize notes or outlines, or census tables. Strive for clarity.

(5) Study the printed queries and follow our particular style of writing. For example, we write out "married" rather than abbreviate it to "m." "Born" and "died" are also written out, as are "county" and "parish." Months spelled with more than five letters are abbreviated. States, when used with the name of a town or county, are abbreviated, as in "Baton Rouge, La." But we would write "Baton Rouge is in Louisiana."

(6) End the query with your name and address, written on a single line.

QUERIES

Queries should be addressed to the editor, Post Office Box 335, Baton Rouge, La. Answers may be addressed either directly to the individual or to the editor, or both.

(151) JEFFERIES, SHELBY

I need dates on birth, marriage and death of James Jefferies, who was born in King and Queen County, Va., and died at some time during 1815. I need place of birth, marriage and death of Major Evan Shelby, who was the above James Jefferies' father-in-law. Major Shelby was born Feb. 27, 1757 and died Jan. 18, 1793.
--Mrs. E. H. White, Vivian, La.

(152) HATCHER, DREHR, CHAPMAN, HAYS, WORSHAM, ROURK

I would like to contact descendants, or anyone having any knowledge of descendants, of George Washington Hatcher, who married Ann Drehr. Their children were: Eliza Ann Hatcher, who married John F. Worsham on Nov. 20, 1851; Amanda Hatcher, who married Marion Chapman in 1852; Mary Hatcher, who married John Hays on Dec. 27, 1853; Hiram M. Hatcher, who married Mary Jane Rourk May 29, 1856; and Samuel Hatcher, who married Eliza Worsham on Oct. 13, 1851. The Hiram M. Hatcher who married Mary Jane Rourk had a son named George. George Hatcher had a son named Tom. These Hatchers were all raised around East Baton Rouge Parish, La. All marriage dates given here are recorded at the East Feliciana Parish courthouse in Clinton, La.
--Mr. M. Hatcher, 4300 Lee Ave., Monroe, La.

(153) WATSON, EADS, PALMER, SMITH, SIBLEY, VINCENT, POWELL, BROWN, HARRISON, NEWTON, ROBINSON, TABOR

I would like to correspond with descendants of Lewis Watson, Sr. He was living in East Feliciana Parish in 1836. He had the following children: Charity, who married first Daniel Eads, second Archibald Palmer; Winiford (Winniford), who married Ephriam Smith; William, who married _____ _____ and had issue Michael Watson, Samuel, Lewis, Elizabeth who married _____ Sibley, Winniford who married _____ Vincent. Lewis Watson had by his second marriage: Lewis, Jr.; Patience, who married a Powell; Elizabeth, who married a Brown; and Ednis, who married a Harrison.

Would also like to correspond with descendants of Richard and Susannah (Robinson) Newton. In the succession files of West Feliciana Parish, Estate of Richard Newton, there is a record of a family meeting held July 3, 1817. Among those present at the meeting were David Robinson, grandfather to children of Richard and Susannah Newton; William and Permelia (Newton) Tabor, son-in-law and daughter of deceased. The minor children named were William Willis Newton, Elizabeth Newton and Celia Newton. According to the 1850 census of West Feliciana

Parish, Permelia (Newton) Tabor was a native of Georgia. I am interested in extending the above mentioned lines to an earlier generation.
--Mrs. E. Kittredge Sims, 608 Ockley Dr., Shreveport, La.

(154) FISK, ROBSON, MOORE, SCOTT, FLUKER, LUPE, MILLER, AYCOCK, MELLEN, KEENAN, LYONS

I am writing a biography of Col. Stuart Wilkins Fisk (1820-1863) of Madison Parish and New Orleans, La. Col. Fisk raised and commanded the 25th Louisiana Volunteer Infantry Regiment during the War Between the States. His regiment consisted of the following companies:
A (Caddo Guards), Wm. Robson, Commanding Officer, Organized Shreveport, La.
B (Bayou Macon Defenders), C. H. Moore, Franklin and Madison Parishes,
C S. C. Scott, Monterey, La. (Concordia Parish)
D (Morehouse Avengers), B. K. Fluker, Morehouse Parish)
E (Union Rebels), J. M. Lupe, Monroe, La.
F W. T. Miller, Vidalia, La. (Concordia Parish)
G (Claiborne Stars), S. Aycock, Lisbon, La. (Claiborne Parish)
H (Confederate Guards), W. F. Mellen, New Orleans, La.
I H. Keenan, Enterprise, La. (Catahoula Parish)
K W. R. C. Lyons, Providence, La. (E. Carroll Parish)

I am interested in locating letters, papers, diaries or accounts written by members of the 25th Louisiana Volunteers which may throw light upon their activities.
--Mr. K. T. Urquhart, 507 Jefferson Park Ave., New Orleans 21, La.

(155) TERRY, KEEP, HILL, SINGLETON, BICKHAM, KENNEDY

I would like to contact descendants of Champness Terry. He was prominent in the West Florida Rebellion and Republic, coming to the Natchez Territory in 1798 from Warren County, Ga. He moved into what is now Louisiana in 1800, living on Terry's Creek in Tangipahoa Parish, then St. Helena District. His wife is believed to have been Hannah _____. Their known children were: (1) Leah Terry, who married Dr. Oliver Keep and moved to New York; (2) Nancy Terry, who married Warren Hill; (3) Sarah Terry, who married Robert Singleton of Washington Parish, La.; (4) Elizabeth Curry Terry, who married James Salisbury Bickham of Washington Parish; (5) Rebecca Fletcher Terry, who married first McGilvray Kennedy and second Alexander C. Bickham of Washington Parish; (6) Louis Terry; (7) Vertner Terry; and (8) Champness Terry, Jr.

I have much information on Champness Terry and will be glad to share it with any of his descendants who will write to me.
--Mr. Bickham Christian, 644 Herndon Ave., Shreveport 39, La.

(156) LEARY, FREEMAN, CAPEHART, HUNTER, TYNES, BRITTON, FREEMAN, SPARKMAN, GARRETT, HOLLY (HOLLEY)

I would like to correspond with anyone having information regarding descendants of the following families:
(1) William Leary married Leah Freeman in Chowan County, N. C., in 1778, and later moved to Bertie County, N. C. In his will (Bertie County, N. C., 1821-22) he mentioned Selah Capehart (widow of Thomas Leary); granddaughters Penny, Levinia, Ann Hunter Sally Leary (widow of Job Leary); West Tynes; daughters Ann Britton, Seneth Hunter, Frausey Freeman (possibly Frusey Freeman); sons John Leary, Charlton Leary; William Sparkman. Was William Sparkman a relative?
(2) Thomas Garrett married Patsy Holly, in Bertie County, N. C., in 1796.
(3) David Garrett, Bertie County, married Mary Sparkman, widow of William Sparkman. The division of David Garrett's lands was made about 1807. Mary Garrett made a will in Bertie County, in 1820 (probated 1823). What was her maiden name? Everard Garrett, son of David and Mary Garrett, probably married Elizabeth Freeman, in Bertie County, in 1808. I am especially interested in finding names of children of this Everard Garrett.
--Mrs. Hazel Ahrens, Oskaloosa, Kans.

(157) FISHER, McBETH, LAWRENCE, ROPER, HAYNIE

My great-grandfather was _____ Fisher, living near the Louisiana-Mississippi line. Due to boundary adjustments, the territory where he lived has been both Louisiana and Mississippi and I believe Pascagoula County. He had step-children by the name of McBeth and was supposedly killed by one John McBeth. His widow, my great-grandmother Mary Ann Fisher, then came to Texas with two Fisher children, my grandmother Ann Fisher and a son Jerry. A daughter, Harriet, who married Joseph Lawrence, was already living in Texas. This was about 1831. I am anxious to learn the full name of my great-grandfather and the names of his parents, as well as the name of his wife before her marriage. Was it Roper? They probably came from Pennsylvania to Louisiana, as did James Haynie, who married widow Mary Ann Fisher in Texas. Any information on these Fisher, McBeth, Roper and Haynie lines will be appreciated.
--Mrs. Flavia Fleischman, Route 2, Box 218, Baytown, Tex.

(158) RICHARDSON, KENT, YOUNGBLOOD, COLLINS, BRUMFIELD, LAMPTON, SIBLEY, BUTLER, EATON, CALHOUN

I am interested in my Richardson family who lived in Pike County, Miss. and in Washington Parish, La., as shown by the 1850 Mississippi and Louisiana Census as follows: John E. (Eaton) Richardson, born in Georgia about 1820-25, died Feb. 14, 1881, saddler by trade, married Rebecca Vesta Kent, born in Mississippi Jan. 19, 1829, died in February 1883 at Columbia, La. They were married in Pike County, Miss., near China Grove Church, about 1848-49. Her parents were James W. Kent, born in Georgia in 1807, and Vesta Youngblood Kent, born in Georgia Feb. 12, 1807 and died at Columbia, La. Feb. 17, 1862. Vesta Youngblood Kent was the daughter of Benjamin Youngblood, who was born Oct. 20, 1773 in Georgia and died Jan. 15, 1861 in Columbia, Miss. He married Susannah (Sooky Ann) Collins, who was born in South Carolina May 16, 1775 and died Nov. 19, 1866. They were married Dec. 20, 1794 in Georgia and moved to Marion County, Miss., China Grove, in 1811. They had other children: Hannah, who married a Brumfield; Lucy Ann, who married William Lampton; Susan, who married a Sibley, and others of whom I have complete records.

I would like to have the names of the parents of Benjamin Youngblood. I think his father was a Revolutionary soldier. I would also like information on John E. Richardson, my grandfather, and his sister, Lucretia Richardson, who married a Butler. There were other brothers, names not known, all children of a David Richardson, born in South Carolina in 1785, and his wife Mary Eaton, who was born in Georgia.

John E. Richardson, his wife and child Vesta, together with wife's parents, James W. Kent and family, moved to Columbia, La., about 1852. One daughter, Nancy Kent, married John Calhoun.

Since I found no records of a John E. Richardson in Columbia, Miss., I presume there would be a record in Washington Parish at Franklinton, La.

--Mrs. Eugenia Clark Oliver, 510 Breard St., Monroe, La.

(159) POWELL, OWEN, ROBERTS, SHIRLEY, WILLIAMS, JONES, ALEXANDER, DAVIS, SMILEY, COCHRAN, COURTNEY, FRANCIS, HICKMAN, NETTLES, RICHMAN

If you are descended from the Powell, Owen, Roberts, Shirley, Williams, Jones or Alexander families who at one time or other settled in either North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama or Mississippi, please write to me and let me send to you gratis pedigree charts and family history sheets for you to copy your family records on. Then please return to me and I will include it in my collection, which I hope to have published.

I wish more information on the family and descendants of Isaac Davis, listed in the 1816 census of Amite County, Miss. and in the 1830 census of Catahoula Parish, La. Was he in the 1840 and 1850 census of Catahoula Parish? Who were his children? Who was his wife? Where was he from before he settled in Amite County? Did he have a brother John Davis? Did they have a sister who married Matthew Jones of Amite County? If so, from where? When? Would be glad to pay for marriage records of Matthew Jones, Sr., which I think took place in North or South Carolina.

Joseph Warren Smiley died March 13, 1889. Where? Was it Catahoula Parish, La., Wayne County, Miss., or Amite County, Miss.? Emily Smiley died Aug. 17, 1884. Where? Who were their children? Was James Smiler (Smiley) who married Jane Elizabeth Parker in Wayne County, Miss., March 5, 1846, and died in 1849, a son of Joseph or a brother? Was Emily's maiden name Shirley? Who were Joseph's and Emily's children? Were the Smileys and Shirleys related?

The 1810 Census of Amite County shows: Henry Cochran, John Cochran (2), John Cochran, Sr., Thomas Cochran, Benjamin Courtney, Ezra Courtney, John Courtney, Jonas Courtney, Jonathan Courtney, Richard Courtney, Robert Courtney, Thomas Courtney, James Curtis (2), Richard Curtis (2), Benjamin Davis, Charles Davis, Elijah Davis, Isaac Davis, John Davis, Linsey Davis, Micajah Davis, John Francis, Joseph Francis, Nathaniel Hickman, William Hickman (2), Britton Jones, Burwell Jones, Frederick Jones, Jonathan Jones, William Jones, Isam Nettles, William Nettles, Andrew Richman, James Richman. Any person having data on any of the above men please write to me. Where did they come from? Who were their parents, wives and children? Whom did their children marry?

--Mrs. W. O. Richey, Boyce, La.

(160) HOUGH, BLAKE, FARR, FERGUSON, DIXON

Can anyone help me locate ancestors of Needham Hough? He married Rebecca Blake. When and where? They were in South Carolina in 1825. Needham Hough died Feb. 28, 1852. Rebecca Blake Hough died Jan. 5, 1867. Two of their children were: Jackson Hough, died in Sumpter County, Ala. in 1842; Samuel B. Hough, died in Rapides Parish, La. Oct. 28, 1855, married Sara S. E. Farr and left two minor children, Margaret Ann and Almira.

Does anyone have information on the ancestors of Ann Ferguson, who married Thomas Dixon, supposedly in North or South Carolina in the 1700's?

--Mrs. Katherine Dixon Strong, 2301 Marie Place, Monroe, La.

(161) RUTH (ROUTH)

I would like to correspond with any descendants of Jonathan Ruth (Routh) of Edgefield County, S. C., listed in the 1790 census with wife and three children. Would also like to get in touch with descendants of Nicholas Ruth, listed in the "Original List of Protestant Immigrants to South Carolina, 1763-1773" (pp. 60-62).

--Mrs. Harry E. Richmond, 136 East Avenue 37, Los Angeles 31, Calif.

(162) POLLOCK, JOHNSON

Would like to know who the parents of James M. Pollock were. He was born about 1850. He had a brother named Jesse Pollock. It is believed that he came to Texas from Greenwood, La. He was married to Helen Theodocia Johnson on Dec. 15, 1874 in Carthage, Tex. They lived in Sunny Point, Tex. and had two sons, James Bernard and Amory Hubert. James Bernard Pollock was my father. He was born Nov. 12, 1879 and his mother, Helen Theodocia, was born Nov. 12, 1858. James M. Pollock died Oct. 6, 1879 and is buried in Sunny Point.
